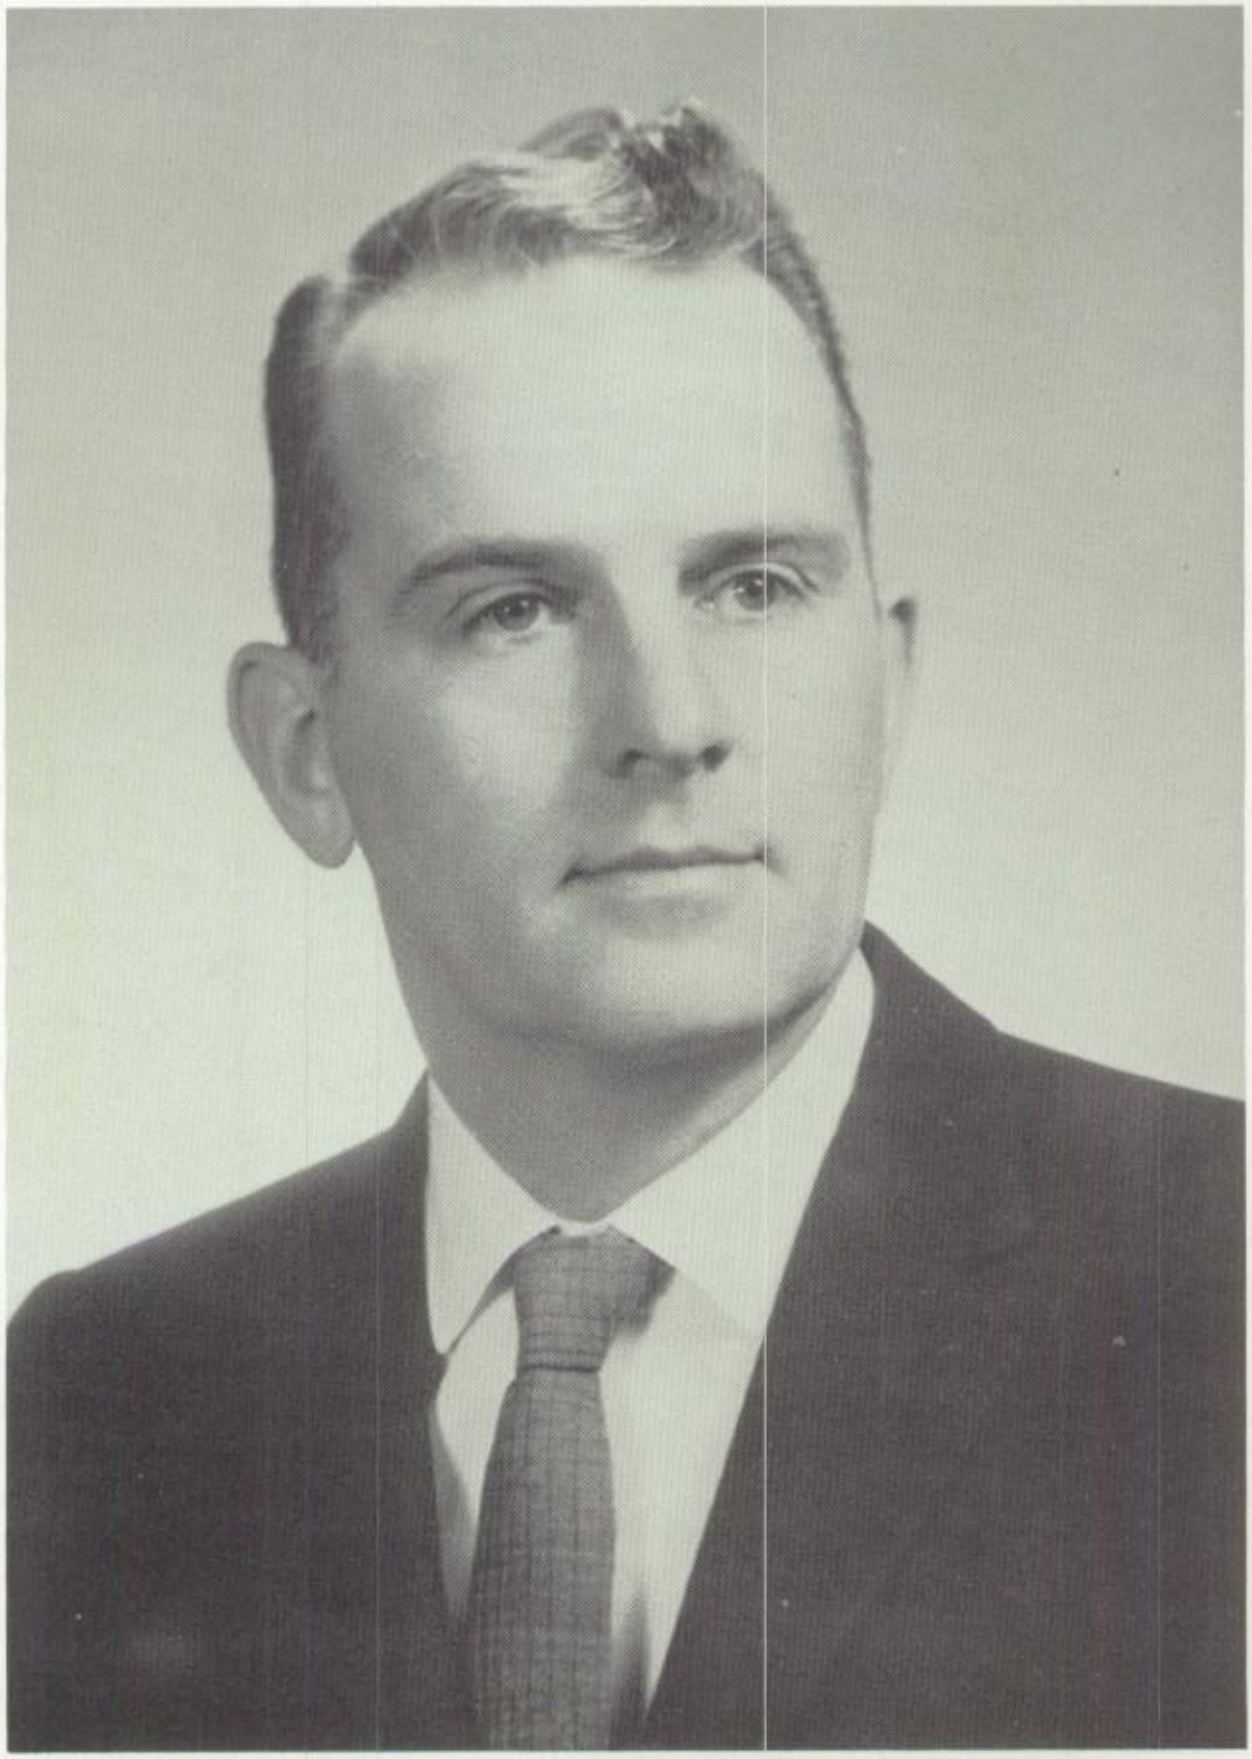
DEDICATION



To pay tribute to you-Mr. Robert S. Ewing-outstanding principal of Charlton High School for the past ten years, we, the class of 1963, do affectionately dedicate this-our Yearbook.

You-Mr. Ewing-democratic in your ideals and actions have shown thoughtfulness, unselfishness, and innate kindness as an administrator. Conscientious and industrious in your methods, honest, sincere, and understanding in your relationships with everyone, you have demonstrated in your efficiency inspirational qualities of ideal Americanism.

On your recent promotion we congratulate you, and in your new position as Superintendent-Principal of Charlton High School we wish you much success.

A Tribute

To you--Mr. Joseph Reed Burgess--a man who combines Yankee ingenuity and frugality with an awareness of modern educational needs, we the graduates of 1963, do pay deserving tribute.

This June you will retire as superintendent of Charlton, Holland, and Sturbridge schools, which you have served faithfully and efficiently for the past twenty-six years.

Although you have the distinction of being Worcester County's Senior Superintendent, you are still young in appearance, in vitality, and in equanimity. As you resemble in your rugged individualism our famous American poet, the late Robert Frost, using some of his words, we say: "You have much to look backward on with pride and forward to with hope."

In Memoriam

Death, thou hast a bitter sting,

But thou canst not erase memories-

Fond memories, pleasant memories-

Of a smiling face;

Of a willing spirit;

Of a helping hand;

Of a friendly way.

Oh, Death, thou dost have a bitter sting.

Thou canst take away the life of man;

But thou canst not remove his memory from our hearts.

There it shall dwell and linger on.

Freshman Year

By Mary Millette

September 9, 1959, fifty-eight class members of '63, entered C.H.S. Although the school was not new to us, the day marked the beginning of our four high school years, which would lead us to graduation.

In September, we elected our class officers, who were president - Linda Stone; vice-president - Mary; secretary - Lenny; treasurer - Paula; and representative - Carol Daley.

In the Magazine Drive, we had the highest percentage of sales and, also earned some welcome money for our treasury.

November 13, our successful Freshman Hop was held in the new school cafeteria.

Attaining scholastic honors were Marilyn and Linda, highest honors; honors, Russell, Carol Daley, Joanne, John, Mary, Nancy, Paula, and Wayne.

We left in June, with hardly a look over our shoulders knowing the best was yet to come.

Sophomore Year

By Carol Daley

September 7, 1960 marked the second step of our four year journey with fifty-four eager Sophomores entering their second year.

Our first task was to elect our class officers; namely, president - Marilyn; vice-president - Paula; secretary - Lenny; treasurer, Mary; and representative - Carol Daley.

Five new members entered our class during the year, Teddy Bellerive, Carol LaRue, Elinor Jeacopello, William Mitchell and Louis Pellissier.

Our first successful money raising project for 1960-'61 was our Sophomore Hop held on October 14.

In our C.H.S. Magazine Contest, our class placed second and Wayne Vaundell was the highest salesman for the entire school.

Our Honor Roll students for the year were Linda and Marilyn, highest honors; honors, Georgia, Mary, Joanne, Wayne, John, Nancy, and Paula.

We left on our summer vacation, anxiously awaiting our Junior year, which promised us our class rings and our all important Junior Prom.

Junior Year

By Linda Stone

We began our Junior year in September of 1961, with fifty pupils, but later lost Annette Houle, Arthur Latti, and Joan Burlingame.

Our Junior class officers were president - Marilyn; vice-president - Linda Stone; secretary, Lenny; treasurer - Mary; and representative, Carol Daley.

On September 28, we were all thrilled, as we were the first pupils to receive rings with the new design.

In November and February we held our candy sales for our Washington trip. Also during the basketball season, we sold candy bars. In April, we had a food sale.

On May 4, 1962, we held our long anticipated and wonderful Junior Prom, under the expert supervision of Mrs. Emma Hammond and Mrs. Shiela Glynn. Our theme, "Twilight Time," was portrayed in a beautiful garden scene. We used our class colors, midnight blue and silver, with sweetheart rose as our class flower. Music was furnished by George Gregory's Orchestra.

Our honor pupils for the year were Katie, Marilyn, and Linda, highest honors; honors, Georgia, Carol Daley, Joanne, Carol LaRue, John, Mary, Nancy, Paula, and Wayne.

We came to the end of our Junior year very well pleased and satisfied with the year's activities. As we led the march into the gymnasium, the night of graduation, we anxiously awaited our final year at C.H.S.

Senior Year

Paula Simonelli

As the Seniors, we began our final year with 46 students. Our class officers were president - Marilyn, vice president - Paula; secretary - Lenny; treasurer - Mary, and representative Sally.

Our Honor students were Linda and Marilyn, highest honors; Katie, Georgia, Joanne, Carol LaRue, Mary, Nancy, Paula, John, and Wayne with honors.

Mary Millette was elected to represent us on Student Government Day and Marilyn received the DAR award.

Our first Washington activity was our auction held on September 29. Directed by Mr. Ewing everyone worked hard and the result was the largest profit ever made by any class.

On October 5 was our Senior Hop which proved to be a big success.

Our Senior Play, "Onions in the Stew," that came on November 9, turned out to be an overwhelming success, under the coaching of Mrs. Mable Fiske. The members of the cast were Mary Millette supported by John, Linda Stone, Carol Daley, Russell, Ronald, Victor, Andrea Pezzole, Paula, Georgia, Joanne, Lenny, Carol LaRue, Sandy, Ann Marie, Nancy, James, Louis, William, Alfred, Sally, Marilyn, Elinor, Joe, Bev, Wayne, Gerrie, Katie, Andrea Hilton, Linda Hunt, and Dolores.

Our November Christmas Card Sale, because of much hard work on the part of the students and our advisor, Mrs. Emma Hammond, was rewarded by a large profit.

The Senior Supper held on Feb. 2 was also a great success because of the work of the class directed by Mr. Robert Ewing.

I am quite sure we will never forget the wonderful time we spent in Washington D.C. and the long train ride home.

We are looking forward to Class Day, Graduation and the Senior Reception. In conclusion we wish to thank all who helped us particularly our advisors.

The Prophecy

by Judy Babineau

The big day had arrived; June 11, 1983, twenty years since graduation.

My husband and I, who had returned from Russia, were on our way to our class reunion to be held on the moon. This was our first trip to the moon although most of my classmates had lived there many years.

The moon which had been settled by the U.S. is now a popular vacation spot. The first man to land on the moon was John Miller, now teaching biology at the Moon Technological School, where Howie is principal. Also at Moon Tech is Joe, teacher of Chemistry.

As our spaceship landed, I was surprised at the high degree of civilization people had built here. Although all the buildings were beautiful, the one that really caught my eye was the new Howard Johnson Restaurant, our reunion meeting place.

As I entered the restaurant, I was personally greeted by the manager, Jimmy. When I complimented Jimmy on his establishment, he told me it had been designed by the famous artist, Gerri and built by the Roger Davis Construction Company.

Looking around, I noticed Al, who had two jobs, supporting his wife and six children.

Sitting at the fountain were Marily and William Rollings who had gone into the plumbing business in memory of our Senior Play.

Jim said that Carol LaRue, now Mrs. Paul Bonneau, who was owner of Bonneau Olive Co., and Joanne Laroche, now Mrs. Eddie Bonneau, was Carol's partner with Cecile as their secretary.

As the band began, I noticed the piano player was Dave, a famous musician who just returned from Carnegie Hall. Dave's wife, the former Katie, had also been very successful as she was owner of a chain of beauty shoppes on the moon with Anne Marie and Nancy as managers.

The others began to arrive. Mary, English teacher, at the Moon High School, entered with Andrea Pezzole Bozyk, who said her husband could not attend, because he had to baby sit for their three sets of twins. Andrea also said Henry Heck's picture was in the Moon Gazette as winner of the National Agricultural Speech Contest.

While chatting with Mary and Andrea, I learned many of my classmates had become teachers. Also at Moon Regional was Sally Jones, Business Ed., Ronnie, American History teacher, and Victor, teacher of French.

Then I heard a loud chatter and I knew my good friend Regina had arrived Reggie who had married Eddie Hebert after a 23 year courtship, owner of the moon pharmacy.

Reggie told me Sandra would not be able to attend, because she was touring the U.S. after being chosen Mrs. National Home Maker of 1983.

I was saddened when Lenny arrived and said Eddie, president of the U.S. and his wife, Paula, best dressed woman in the world would not be able to attend.

Lenny said she had seen Richard, who was the present principal of C.H.S. where his wife, Linda Hunt was serving as secretary. Lenny also said Marie and William Thompson, now married, were owners of the largest moon cattle ranch.

Then, Alan arrived, whom I learned had never married. Still the biggest flirt, he escorted two ladies to the reunion.

Alan told me he and Wayne were dance instructors at the world famous Russell Caplette Dance Studio.

Then Louie, manager of the famous opera singer Andrea Hilton, arrived with his wife, Carol Daley, head nurse at the moon hospital. Carol said she had just read Gurlie's short story, "How to Knit Knee Socks."

Louie told me he had seen Bev, the new owner of a school of ceramics. Working with Bev, were Mrs. Ray Cournoyer, the former Marcia Langlois, and Mrs. David Benoit, once Carol Girard.

The last of my classmates to arrive were Georgia, Linda Stone, and Dolores. Georgia, now Mrs. Douglas Cudworth, was secretary to Dolores, owner of the Reddi Cake Mix Company.

Linda Stone informed me that Ellie, Mrs. Gordon Stone, had been bitten by one of her pet mice. Linda, a chemist, had the largest training school for "moon mice."

As our spaceship left the moon, I could not help thinking about all my successful classmates. What a beautiful and satisfying day this had been!

I, John Miller, leave my honor report cards to Gordon Pike.
I, Mary Millette, leave my acting ability to next year's Senior class.
I, Howard Oliver, leave with a bill of sale for the Washington Diner.
I, Louis Pellissier, leave a worn-out path to Webster to Bill Ball.
I, Andrea Pezzole, leave my loud laugh still ringing in the lab.
I, Nancy Piehl, leave with still more wonderful Piehls to follow.
I, William Rollins, leave my high scores on College Boards to "Don" Davidson.
I, Richard Rosenquist, leave my jokes to the Science Survey Class.
I, Paula Simonelli, leave my bathrobe dress to any late sleeper.
I, Alan Stegenga, leave to flirt with college girls tomorrow.
I, Marie St. Martin, leave my voice to Judy Truscott.
I, Linda Stone, leave my ability to cry to Dolores Konkol.
I, William Thompson, leave an empty "Aggie" room seat to Judson Wetteland.
I, Wayne Vaundell, leave Bonnie walking the corridors with Vicent Reardon.

Class Song

Music by Dave Fredricks

words by Gerri Johnston

The time has come for us to part,
We'll keep your memories locked in our hearts,
We know the future can't be read
Through the years that lie ahead.

Looking back at the past,
The time has come at last
To say goodbye to those we love
And thank the Lord above,

For all we've done through the years,
Along with happiness, joy, and tears,
Farewell to our teachers of C.H.S.
To you, Mr. Ewing, we give our best.

Our goal is for tomorrow;
Our aim starts today.
Farewell to everyone of you
As we go on our way.

Praise and glory be our power.
This final hour--
We say farewell to you.

COMMENCEMENT

Reflect, if you will, on the word Commencement. Not only does it mean a celebration of a successful four years, but also a "beginning of graduation life." Actually, at your High School Commencement you are starting to assume life's major responsibilities. The diploma you receive is not only a reward, but a passport to this future responsibility. American Optical Company congratulates you on your "Commencement." Our best wishes go with you as you assume new duties and obligations that will further mold into a successful American Citizen.
